Renegades Halloween Party

A selection of photos from the fancy dress party held at the Cottenham Club. Thanks to the Social Committee for organising and putting in the hours to make a great party.

Renegades Halloween Party

Following a good 32-10 win at home to Ely Development, Renegades held their Halloween Party at the Cottenham Club. A huge amount of organising and set-up both for the kids party in the afternoon and the adult party in the evening.

Big thanks to the Social Committee for all their work and effort. To keep Renegades as the best social club in the area, we need to make sure that Club events are fully attended, because they are awesome events!

A family affair

One of the reasons for rugby's rapid growth over the recent years is that regardless of size, shape, age or gender, there is a type of rugby and a level of competition that is right for almost everyone. Teams like Renegades offer this on a weekly basis.

On December 3rd 2011 a dream was fulfilled, Dad Richard (58) played with his three sons Harry (23), Jack (21) and Tom (18).

Richard has been a regular player for Renegades for the last four years and made his debut with Jack against CANTABS on 13th October 2007. Jack continued to play all season until he went to Coventry University, Harry also at Uni played for Renegades during college holidays. It wasn't until Tom was 18 that it became a possibility that all 4 would take to the pitch at one time. Tom is the leading points scorer this season and in the match against St Ives kicked 6 conversions. Harry is back from Uni and intends to be a full time player.

Wednesday night training continues!

The touch rugby/training sessions continue on a Wednesday night under the floodlights at the Rec. 7pm start for all those who can make it.

Training is an ideal opportunity to practice and fine tune the game plan so every Renegades needs to make an effort to attend and our League position shows that the training we have already done is paying dividends.

Dear All

I know this may come as a surprise to you but I am 40 in April this year. Yes only 40 – I am aware I look older and in fact my older brother looks younger – I have had to contend with you lot!

As part of my celebrations I am organising a charity walk (don't be put off by the charity bit - you only have to fund raise if you wish otherwise I'm happy to take that part on). It will be held in the lake district and the plan is to travel up and stay on Friday 20th April, Saturday 21st, Sunday 22nd and return on Monday 23rd April. The walking will not be too gruelling and I will arrange for kit to be transferred so

The Full of Bull Barcelona Tour is booked and ready to go!

Looking to be a great tour, with nice weather, good tour game and obviously the obligatory beers, fun and banter!

Late entries are required by tomorrow, if you wish to join the fun as accommodation will be limited. The remaining balance on the £200 for tourists is due as quickly as you can transfer or hand it to me.

Regards. BeakyBevProductions

we are carrying very little during the day. Accommodation will be in Youth Hostels – all of which have licensed bars. The cost for the weekend (accommodation and food) should not exceed £120.00 but I will be trying to get this below £100.00. Beer is not included.

The weekend is also in celebration of 850 years of military moustaches – hence the title and the only rule is that you must turn up with at least a weeks worth of facial growth.

Please let me know if you are interested so I can confirm bookings.
